Allegation Against the City Judge With-drawn-Nolle Proseque Entered-The Case of William Mulligen, die.

COURT OF GYER AND TERMINER.

Before Judges Ingraham and Bakem.

Oct. 18.—The adjourned term of this court commenced Mr. Blunt, the District Attorney, rose and said that here was a matter which he was desirous of bringing before their Hos.ors that would probably occupy some time and it was possible that it would be disposed of in a few

Mr. Conton, counsel for Dr. Cobel, indicted for man, stang ter, said he was ready to proceed to trial.

Mr. Blunt-I desire that William Mulligan be called. I aderstood that the cases of Judge Russell and Mulligan would occupy to-day, and, therefore, the witnesses in Dr Ochel's case were not subpornaed.

Judge Bascom-The old jury for the circuit, who have been in attendance heretofore, and are in attendance now, been in attendance heretofore, and are in attendance now, will not be wanted till to morrow morning, as there is a special jury summoned for the Oyer and Terminer.

The District Atterney stated that he felt it to be his duty to meve the Oyer and Terminer for a Grand Jury, to meet next Monday. The criminal business that was now andisposed of by the Grand Jury was so large is this county that unless something was done to relieve the prison it would be overfilled. There were now in the city prisen 429 persons committed for felony, and a number for assault and battery and other offences, besides 250 accused parties out on hall, whose cases were not disposed of by the Grand Jury. There was also a good deal of public business which was not on the calendar, and although the present Grand Jury of the Sessions were stiting forenon and afternoon, they could not dispose of the accumulating business. Under such circumstances, the District Atterney asked to have a Grand Jury summoned for next Monday, at an adjourned Court of Oyer and Terminer.

Judge Ingraham ordered a Grand Jury to be summoned, remarking that the law only permitted them to sit one week, as the Court of General Sessions would commence the Nevember term on the first Monday of that month.

The panel of Jurors will consist of thirty six, returnable commence of the content of the six of the Court of the six of the product of the six of the product of the six of the product of the six of the content of the six o

INDICTMENT AGAINST JUDGE RUSSELL WITHDRAWN The District Attorney then rose and said:-May it please the Court, in the case of Judge Russell, which the Court had its attention called to. I hold a letter in my hand has been sent to me this morning Mr. James M. Smith, the former Recorder of this city. It is to the effect that he is counthe complainants, Messrs. Wilkes and Darcy; that he has examined the facts in the case, and he is con-vinced that the indictment for assault, if prosecuted, winced that the indictment for assault, if prosecuted, would not result in the conviction of the accused; that no good result can be accomplished by its further prosecution; and under such directions and suder prosecution; and under such directions are the assault and battery are concerned, a mere private affair. I feel it to be my duty to comply with that suggestion. In relation to the riot, I was satisfied at once, from an examination of the papers, that the indictment for rist could not be sustained. I shall ask that that course be adopted in both cases.

A. Oakey Hall, Esq., counsel for Judge Russell, intimated

A. Oakey Hall, Esq., counsel for Judge Russell, intimated that there were three indictments of the same tenor. The District Attorney requested that the suggestion of the counsel for the complainant ought to be complied with. Judge Balcom, of course, promptly ordered a nolle proceed by the counsel for the complainant ought to be complied with. Judge Balcom, of course, promptly ordered a nolle proceed in the property of the private spleen, and was a futle attempt to prejudice our efficient thy Judge in the prompt administration of justice. Charles O'Conor, Esq., who is associated with Mr. Hall in the case, was present. It is but proper to observe that the action of the District Attorney is in accordance with the original motion of Mr. O'Conor, and the District Attorney's opinion is coincident with the original argument of Messrs. Hall and O'Conor. All the wincesses for the defence were in court, ready for trial.

The following is the letter of ex-Recorder Smith to which the District Attorney referred in his motion.—

LETTER OF EX-RECORDER SMITH.

New YORK, Oct. 16, 1858. JOSEPH BLUNT, Esq., District Attorney, &c.

DEAR SIE-I have been retained as counsel in the suit of the People vs. Judge Russell, on the complaint of Messrs. Wilkes and Darcy. I have carefully examined the facts and the law that will control the case, and the conclusion to which I have arrived is that a conviction cannot legally to which I have arrived is that a conviction cannot legally be sustained. A trial, in my opinion, would not be productive of any beneficial results. I have so advised my clients, and they have submitted the matter to my discretion and direction. I think a noile pracquis ought to be entered. If you concur with me, let that course be adopted. It will be satisfactory to the complainants; and, certainly, in my opinion, no benefit can result from further litigation in this matter. I am compelled to be at the Court of Appeals on Monday morning or I could have met you at the Oyer and Terminer, as I contemplated doing at an interview on Friday. Very respectfully,

JAMES M. SMITH. THE CASE OF WILLIAM MULLIGAN.

Mr. Blunt read an affidavit of the Assistant District At-terney, on which he based a motion to remove the case of Wm. Mulligan from the Oyer and Terminer to the court from whence it came, namely, the General Sessions.

Judge Bascom—Is the defendant in court? The Clerk called Wm. Mulligan, but Wm. Mulligan did not answer.

The District Attorney inquired if the sureties were named on the papers, to which the Clerk replied in the affirma on the papers, to which the Clerk replied in the affirma tive, whereupon the prosecuting officer instructed the Clerk to take steps to have the recognizance forfeited.

The Clerk then called John Carlan, the defendant's surety, but he failed to appear.

Judge Bascom ordered the recognizance to be forfeited, but he had scarcely uttered the words, when Ex Judge Philips, counsel for the defendant, hurried into court, and stated that he would have been present at the commencement of the proceedings had he been aware that the Court met at ten o'clock.

Judge Bascom—Is the defendant in court?

Mr. Philips—No, sir, he is not.

Mr. Blunt—I understand he is attending a prize fight at Nagara.

Mr. Phillips-I do not know.

Mr. Phillips—No. sir, he is not.

Mr. Biont—I understand he is attending a prize fight at Nagara.

Mr. Phillips—I do not know.

Connei then addressed the court, remarking that an order was made by Judge Sutherland removing the cause to the Oyer and Terminer, and the party being on bail in compliance with the statute, he gave a bond for his appearance at the next Oyer and Terminer. That bond had been flied in accordance with the statute, and the senior counsel in the case informed his client that the cause could not be tried this term, in consequence of the bond being taken for his appearance at the next term of this court.

Judge Bascom—Is not this the next term?

Mr. Phillips—No, sir. This is an adjourned Oyer and Terminer; the term commenced on the first Monday in October; the next term means the next term that is fixed by the rules of this court.

The District Attorney replied by saying that from what he observed of the conduct of this case and the movements of the defendant, he was satisfied efforts were made to put off the trial, with a view of seeing whether the patience of justice could not be worn out. The motion to remove the case from the Sessions to the Oyer and Terminer was made without the slightest notice being given to the Postric Attorney, and it was granted by Judge Sutherland. The first notice the District Attorney had of the matter was the presentation of the order in the General Sessions. The prosecuting officer therefore gave notice, forthwith, that he should proceed to the trial of Mulhgan this morning. Mr. Sickles, instead of wishing to meet us here, said he would neet the lestrict Attorney at Phillipli, a place where he (Mr. Bunt) had no intention of going. Under such circumstances, said Mr. B., 1 urge that the first go on, because I am satisfied that this is a mere pretence to delay. With regard to the objection raised by the counsel for the defendant, he (Mr. B.) believed that the next Oyer and Terminer meant the next Oyer and Terminer should be semmoned for the purpose of freeing the re cognizance and to allow of any further delay on the part of this defendant, he would ask that the order bringing that case, insignificant in its character, and only spinificant on account of the peculiar character of the defender in himself, should be sent back to the Sestions, in order that the prosecuting officer could bring it is to morrow. The order removing the case from the stations was not binding, so that if their Honors considered that it was not a case that ought to be tried by the 6yer and Terminer they could send it back to the court from w. bith it was removed.

Coursed to the defendant read the order of the Court granting the m. Wou to remove the cause to the Oyer and Terminer, stain a that the recognizance taken by law was taken for the nex t Oyer and Terminer.

Judge Buscoun; well that he was bound to presume that the case was son, to the Oyer and Terminer for good cause. He apprehen ded that he defendant was not bound to appear there in a vision on that occasion, because the adjourned torm was a part of the original term. His Honor directed that the order to ferfeit Mulligan's recognizance be vacated, o wereing in the Emerica Attorney that if he swere descount to have the case sent back to the Sessions, the proper course would be to make the application to Judge Sutherland, who granted the order.

The Central Park Stone,

THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18, 1858. Seeing in your edition of this morning an article on the progress of the work at the Central park, wherein you progress of the work at the Central park, wherein you state that the stens now used by the Architect-in-Chief is the Nova Scota stone, of which the bridges and other stanctures are being built, and which are so well cateniated to lend beamy and effect to the improvements of this place of recreation so most inceded by the citizens of New York, I hasten to correct this error, unwittingly made on your part, wherein you give credit to Nova Scota for the production of this beautiful material. That used at the pa k is from the Dorchester quarries, situated in the province of New Brunswick; and I am creditably informed that there is no stone to any extent of similar color and of so fine a texture to be found in any other part of this continent.
